Dear Steve:

I need not tell you that you were great with our students, who can be a tough audience. You captured and held them from the moment you took the stage.

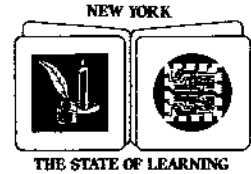

We have found a neighbor and superb entertainer as near as the "dove" flies, and just stand by, for we are sure to call you over again.

Dear Steve:

Thank you very much for participating in our Spring Into the Museum program this year, and helping to make it such a success.

From my vantagepoint in the audience, I could see that your magic, juggling, and good humor delighted the children and their parents.

It is only with the participation of talented people like you that our programs can be successful and, once again, we are most appreciative. I hope it will be possible for us to work together again in the future.

Dear Steve:

I don't remember when I have had so many calls from people who want to thank me for bringing you here for the children's concert. Another one just came in a few minutes ago and it is now almost two weeks after your performance.

It was really a pleasure watching you perform. Your low-key approach with the youngsters on stage had just the right blend of mystery and humor. And you certainly managed to keep the auditorium full of young people mystified into total silence- a rare accomplishment with so many cynical middle-schoolers.

Many thanks for a wonderful afternoon. Please thank Fred for the recommendation and all the arrangements.

Dear Fred:

I am a little late in writing to thank Steve Johnson and Scott Hitchcock for the wonderful job they did for us on July 19. Steve's Magic Variety Show was a big hit and thoroughly enjoyed by young and old. He has a fine stage presence and good rapport with the audience. He and Scott, as a juggling team, also work very well together. It really looked as though they were having as much fun as we were. Please convey our thanks to both young men.

Dear Fred,

I'm happy to report that Steve Johnson presented a wonderful magic and juggling show on our For Kids Only series last Saturday. We had a full house and everyone enjoyed Steve's performance. He is an accomplished magician and fine juggler in addition to an all around good entertainer. Please thank him again for bringing his talents to our series.

Thanks to you also for your help with Steve's appearance. I probably won't get into booking 1993-94 until January and will get in touch with you then.

Best wishes for a happy holiday season.

Dear Steve,

Thank you very much for presenting your charming Magic, Variety and Illusion Show at Newport Opera House. It was the perfect culmination of Newport's 78th Winter Carnival. We have had many positive responses to the program from throughout the community. Your technique of including the children on stage in your act was really wonderful for both the children and their families. It was a real pleasure watching you and Scott perform. Many thanks for a wonderful afternoon. I hope the weather was pleasant for your drive home.

Dear Mr. Wolinsky:

Just a quick note, belated as it is, to tell you that the program done by Steve Johnson was extremely well-received by the students as well as the parents and teachers in attendance. The act was really well timed and he held the interest of the children throughout the program. It sparked their curiosity and, for some, an interest in magic. As parents we are always delighted when our children want to learn something new.

Again, many thanks to you and Steve for the great show.

Dear Steve,

I would like to thank you very much for the excellent Magic Variety Show performed for our students last week. The show was well-received by our faculty, parents, administration, and students. Our upper and lower grade classes just loved the suspense that was perfectly tied into the magic. The balloon animals and juggling act helped to complete a wonderful variety show.

I thank you for arriving promptly and delivering a show that impressed everyone in attendance.
